

A Campaign for Freedom of Reza Shahabi & All Imprisoned Workers in Iran!

Aug.13 – Sept. 13, 2010

On June 12th, 2010, the capitalist Islamic regime of Iran arrested Reza Shahabi- a member of the board of directors of Tehran & Suburb Bus Company- Sherkat Vahed syndicate. His family and his attorney defense were still left with no information of his whereabouts and conditions.

The anti-worker regime of Iran continues to summon, to detain and incarceration of the workers, labor activists and other social activists as well as their families.

The Solidarity Committees Abroad is calling for a month long campaign for freedom of Reza Shahabi and all other political prisoners in Iran. We call all worker activists, organizations, associations, committees and political parties to actively participate in this campaign, to condemn the Islamic regime and to demand the immediate and unconditional release of all of them. We also seek and demand the support of the workers' organizations worldwide. This support is a crucial step to make this campaign a success. Together, we can push the regime to release all political prisoners.

Free Reza Shahabi, Immediately and Unconditionally!
